SAVE WITH IRA HOME ENERGY REBATES

Save big on your home energy projects with the Inflation Reduction Act! Home Energy Rebates help to pay for improvements you've been wanting to do to make your home more comfortable, like insulation and heating upgrades. Rebate amounts are based on how much energy you are predicted to save and your yearly income. You could save even more when combining IRA rebates with Focus on Energy rebates or tax credits. Use the Focus on Energy Get Started tool to see what you qualify for and start saving big. Really big!
